PHABC Conference

November 16–17, 2017

Drawing practitioners of public health from all over the province, PHABC's annual conference is BC's leading forum for inspiration, sharing, and learning on public health and health equity at the individual, health care system, and community levels.

Join us for our 2017 PHABC Conference on November 16-17, 2017 as we explore the theme "Facing a Changing World: Transformative Leadership and Practice" and its applications through public health sectors Child and Youth Health, Indigenous Health, Planetary Health and Healthy Built Environments, and Immigrant and Refugee Health.

Location: Sutton Place Hotel 845 Burrard St, Vancouver, BC V6Z 2K6

Online Registration is open now, click here to register!

We welcome participants who are working directly or indirectly on public health issues and health promoting activities across our province, including but not limited to:

- | | |
|---|---|
|  Public Health Professionals |  Recreation Practitioners |
|  Frontline Health Providers |  Municipal Council Members |
|  Program & Project Planners |  Academics & Researchers |
|  Health Educators and Community Health Workers |  Policy Analysts |
| |  Graduate & Medical Students |

Why attend?

This two-day conference is a unique collaboration of key-note presentations, case studies and hands on workshops that dive into the meaning of transformative practice and social innovation and its applications across multiple sectors in public health. The PHABC Conference provides the opportunity for professionals throughout the province to meet, mingle, and learn during discussion groups.
