

Public Health Association of BC

PHABC's Public Forum on Transformative Leadership and Practice, November 15, 7-9 pm, Wosk Centre for Dialogue, 7-9 pm, 685 West Hastings, Vancouver

The Public Health Association of BC would like to invite you to our public forum in conjunction with our annual conference, "Facing a Changing World: Transformative Leadership and Practice." The theme of this year's conference is transformative leadership and practice, an innovative leadership style that provides an empowering system that encourages group members to take initiative, innovate and transform into leaders themselves.

SPEAKERS

Dr. Trevor Hancock is a public health physician and health promotion consultant and is currently a Professor and Senior Scholar at the new School of Public Health and Social Policy at the University of Victoria.

Catherine Ludgate is a Community Investment Manager at Vancity and an advocate for progressive social change, with a keen interest in co-op economics and microfinance.

To demonstrate transformative leadership, PHABC is featuring the Bridge for Health Co-operative Association that is celebrating its 1st year anniversary. Bridge for Health is a worker co-op offering services in social innovation to improve health and wellbeing. Learn about Bridge for Health's innovative approach to promoting health and wellbeing in communities and how to get involved in with the B4H Co-op. For more information visit us at www.bridgeforhealth.org or contact us info@bridgeforhealth.org

This event will accept donations for the Red Cross Canada's Africa Drought Appeal. Donations will be accepted via cash or cheque at the event.

Doors open at 6:30 pm. We hope to see you there!

Volunteers will be on hand to answer any questions and/or register new members for either association.

Together we can create a healthy and equal British Columbia for all.
