NATIONAL FARM TO SCHOOL CONFERENCE
VICTORIA, B.C. MAY 15 – 17, 2019
Hosted by: Farm to Cafeteria Canada and PHABC

Dear Potential Exhibitor;

Are you passionate about school food? If so you will want to join us at the firstever National Farm to School Conference, held in Victoria, B.C. May 15th - 17th at the beautiful Victoria Conference Center, Victoria, B.C.

This three-day event will feature field trips to inspirational projects in British Columbia, world-class speakers, presentations, an exhibition room, workshops and networking opportunities. We anticipate over 400 delegates arriving from across Canada and the United States hailing from varied professional backgrounds, from educators to policy makers and more.

Our conference exhibition room will be open to delegates during the entire duration of the conference, and will be a key gathering space during networking breaks. This is an amazing opportunity to network with leading professionals in the healthy school-food movement. If you are involved in school health, local food systems, farming, outdoor education, school gardens, school lunch programs, then this conference is a must.

Your Exhibitor Registration Fee of $450 (+ taxes) Includes:
- 1 table at 6 feet in length with table cloth, two chairs*
- 1 conference pass for both days, including meals
- Great networking opportunity

Upgrades can be made to the tables at the cost of the exhibitor – including a table length increase, second table, electricity, and more. Please inquire for more details and a price quote.

Exhibitor spaces are limited and available on a first-come-first-serve basis. Book yours today to avoid missing out on this ground-breaking, inaugural event!

To reserve your spot today, contact the conference coordinator, Marcus Lobb, at conference@farmtocafeteriacanada.ca

For more information, visit our website: http://farmtoschoolconference2019.ca/

Thank you, and we look forward to hearing from you soon.
Sincerely,
Marcus Lobb,
Conference Coordinator