

First Nations Health Authority
Health through wellness

Employment Opportunity

Medical Officer, Health and Wellness

Location: Park Royal - Negotiable (in BC)

Do you want to be a part of a remarkable and dynamic leadership team?

Are you innovative; 'outside the box' problem solver; and do you lead with passion and integrity?

Is making a difference in the lives of others a strong value that you believe in?

Then we have an opportunity for you!

As the Medical Officer, Health and Wellness, you will provide centralized and strategic focus to promote and protect the health and wellness of BC First Nation peoples and communities. You will provide physician leadership and strategic advice to the Primary Care Team in relation to the implementation of primary care services for BC First Nations.

This role operates as a subject matter expert on population and public health in a First Nations context and as a champion for the First Nations philosophy and approach to health and wellness. The broad areas of leadership for this position are primary care, health and wellness promotion, and population health with a focus on chronic disease prevention and care.

Education & Experience

- A Medical Degree recognized in Canada or an equivalent combination of education, training and experience
- Licensed to practice medicine in BC, in good standing with the relative regulatory body
- Significant, recent and relevant medical practice experience (usually acquired over a period of three years or more)
- Experience in an Aboriginal or Indigenous setting is an asset

What you can expect from us?

If you are looking for a great place to work, where your contributions are valued, and truly make a difference, then First Nations Health Authority (FNHA) may be the place for you!

FNHA supports personal and professional growth, in-house training, a paid volunteer day, personal days and a unique orientation program. We offer competitive salary and extended group benefits packages, including a robust pension plan.

Leading with culture, all FNHA employees complete San'yas Indigenous Cultural Safety Training. We support our family to be leaders in wellness and all staff members develop a yearly wellness plan as part of their performance partnership and goal-setting.

For more position details and information about us, please visit www.fnha.ca or for this position, scan our QR code!

501 - 100 Park Royal South Coast Salish
Territory West Vancouver, BC Canada V7T
1A2

FIND PURPOSE BEYOND YOUR PROFESSION

At FNHA, you'll have the opportunity to contribute to BC's history. With a unique governing structure and mandate, our fluid work environment means you can play an active role in real change.

Our talented teams value respect and foster lateral kindness in their working relationships. Our holistic approach to wellness, based on First Nations teachings, is incorporated into all aspects of work culture. Where else will you get to create a personal wellness plan as part of your performance goals?

If you are looking for more than a job, come join the FNHA family.

Apply Online!

www.fnha.ca/about/work-with-us

Connect via phone or email:

Kevin Williamson, Recruiter

778-887-8659; kevin.williamson@fnha.ca

Confidential Fax: (604) 913-6135

Please include "Self-Identified", if you are voluntarily identifying yourself as First Nations or Aboriginal.

The First Nations Health Authority is a diverse and transformational health organization of professional, innovative and dedicated team members and leaders.

The first of its kind in Canada, FNHA works as a health-and-wellness partner with BC First Nations to support self-determination and decision-making to improve health outcomes.

