

First Nations Health Authority
Health through wellness

Registered Nurse (RN), Primary Care Opportunity

Career Opportunity: Registered Nurse (RN), Primary Care

About the Opportunity

- The Williams Lake First Nations Wellness Centre (WLFNWC) is a new primary care centre opening to improve access to culturally safe care for First Nations people and their families.
- The Registered Nurse (RN), Primary Care position is part of a collaborative, multi-disciplinary primary care team that provides team based, trauma-informed primary care services by creating a culturally safe environment in order to promote, maintain and/or restore client health;
- This position provides direct primary care services to clients at all life stages by observing, assessing, monitoring and documenting client health and progress to make evidence-informed decisions towards health and wellness. The Registered Nurse actively contributes to ensuring a racism-free and culturally safe environment for all clients, their families, and staff. The role is a leader in demonstrating cultural humility and trauma and violence informed care that acknowledges the client's values, cultural beliefs, and practices.
- This position provides care and service that meets the standards for Registered Nurses within the BC College of Nurses and Midwives (BCCNM) and works within the scope of practice for Registered Nurses as determined by relevant legislation.
- Union Code: PIP (Prof Instit of Public Srvc Cda); Hours per week: 37.5

About You

- You have completed a recognized Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN);
- You have a current practicing registration as a Registered Nurse with the British Columbia College of Nurses and Midwives (BCCNM);
- You have a current CPR Certification;
- A BCCDC Immunization Certification an asset;
- You have a minimum of 3 years of recent related experience in primary care, public health, community and/or chronic disease care;
- You have experience working with and delivering health services to First Nations clients;
- You have training in anti-Indigenous racism response and cultural safety and humility;
- You have experience integrating holistic Indigenous approaches with Western approaches;
- You have strong knowledge of cultural safety, humility and trauma informed approaches to care.

About this Initiative

The First Nations-led Primary Health Care Initiative (FNPCI) aims to improve access to primary health care services for First Nations people across BC in a way that is culturally safe and closer to home.

Why work at the Williams Lake First Nations Wellness Centre?

- We have a common foundation to guide us in our daily work. It is what makes us unique from the other health authorities;
- You will be a part of a transformative change in First Nations health and wellness;
- Find purpose beyond your profession. Here, your work changes lives, including your own.

Position Open until Filled Apply Online! www.fnha.ca/about/work-with-us

Williams Lake First Nations Wellness Centre | Williams Lake, BC

For the full job description and to apply, visit www.fnha.ca/about/work-with-us