

Join the FNHA team and be a part of the journey to meaningful change!

The First Nations Health Authority (FNHA) is hiring a Deputy Chief Medical Officer, Public Health to provide a strategic focus on the health and wellness of First Nations peoples and communities in BC.

In addition, we are hiring Family Physicians for several First Nations-led Primary Care Centres across BC to deliver health services directly to First Nations people.

These are unique and exciting opportunities to join dynamic, innovative, and passionate teams whose work champions a BC First Nations approach to population and public health.

Join our team by applying at: www.fnha.ca/about/work-with-us or contact careers@fnha.ca for a confidential discussion.
