

Where ideas work

Ministry of Education and Child Care

Remote work is allowed. This position can work up to full time from their home in British Columbia subject to an approved telework agreement. The locations listed online are to assist applicants in searching for this opportunity and are not a complete list of locations. The position headquarters will be Victoria or Vancouver. Please contact the hiring manager for further details or if you have any questions.

Executive Director, Equitable Access $119,600.00 - $152,599.97 annually

The Ministry of Education and Child Care is responsible for both the province's K-12 education system and for developing, implementing, and regulating an affordable, inclusive, and high-quality system of child care that is accessible to all families.

The Equitable Access team is responsible for drafting policies that supports inclusive, culturally appropriate, and equitable child care. Policy staff research, develop, and work collaboratively on innovative approaches to advance commitments to inclusive and equitable child care access.

The Executive Director, Equitable Access leads the development and implementation of long-term strategic frameworks and policy, and recommends legislation, to provide effective delivery of child care programs and services. This role identifies specific strategies and policy for the effective delivery of services to Indigenous children and families.

Qualifications for this role include:

- Bachelor's degree or higher in social science, business administration, public administration, or a related field AND five (5) years of *related experience in a leadership role. An equivalent combination of education and experience may be considered.
- *Related experience in a leadership role must include each of the following:
 - Establishing collaborative relationships at all levels of the public service including senior leaders across government, or in an equivalent environment.
 - Leading innovative policy initiatives and/or program development.
 - Supervising staff including assigning of work, and development and evaluation of performance plans.
- Experience applying reconciliation principles in the workplace.
- Experience successfully working in partnership with senior executives to create strategies and implement plan.
- Experience working collaboratively with Indigenous partners or organizations.

For more information and to apply online by June 23, 2024, please go to:

<https://bcpublicservice.hua.hrsmart.com/hr/ats/Posting/view/113277>