Child and Youth Mental Health (CYMH) Clinician

$90,774.07 - $103,579.21 annually which includes a 4 Grid Market Adjustment

Our Child and Youth Mental Health (CYMH) teams in the Interior East Kootenay are small, close-knit, and deeply connected to the diverse communities we serve.

As a collaborative, multi-disciplinary team, we are committed to person-centered care that spans early intervention through to long-term treatment for individuals up to age 19. Our diverse team fosters a culture of knowledge-sharing, mutual support, and continuous learning. We value inclusivity and strive to create a respectful and welcoming environment where both clients and team members feel safe, supported, and empowered. Working with us offers a unique opportunity to build meaningful relationships while enjoying the natural beauty and outdoor lifestyle the area is known for.

As a CYMH Clinician, you'll support the mental wellness of children, youth, and families through direct clinical services such as intake, assessment, treatment, suicide risk assessment, safety planning, and crisis intervention. You will collaborate with professionals including educators, healthcare providers, Indigenous service organizations, and community agencies to deliver holistic care.

Qualifications for this role include:

- Master's degree in counselling, Social Work, Educational Counselling, Clinical Counselling, Clinical Psychology or Child and Youth Care or comparable graduate degree at the master's level in a similar subject may be considered.
- Minimum of one (1) year full-time equivalent experience working with children and youth and their families, with responsibility for providing a wide range of community based mental health services.

Preference may be given to applicants with the following:

- Applicants with two (2)+ years of experience working with children and youth and their families, with responsibility for providing a wide range of community based mental health services.
- Applicants who self-identify as having an Indigenous heritage (First Nations, Métis, or Inuit) with the required combination of education and experience.
